EMPOWERED DIVORCE

FINANCIAL PLANNING

BETH KRASZEWSKI,
CFP®, CDFA®, CLU®

We are on a mission to help women thrive through and after divorce, empowering them to make the right financial decisions to support their abundant new life.

THE EMPOWERED DIVORCE PROCESS

VISUALIZE

Create your vision for life after divorce

ANALYZE

Evaluate current financial situation

NAVIGATE

Make the right financial decisions during your divorce

IMPLEMENT

Pursue the path to achieve the vision

Together we can help you not only get through it, but also past it.

FINANCIALLY EMPOWERED DIVORCE

- Proactive vs. reactive
- Fewer unexpected surprises
- More stability
- More freedom & choices
- Understand the implications of income and asset decisions
- Understand what can be given up in order to keep what is important
- Remove financial stress to focus on family

THERE IS A DIFFERENCE BETWEEN GOING THROUGH A FINANCIALLY NAÏVE DIVORCE VS. GOING THROUGH AN EMPOWERED ONE.
LET'S FIGURE IT OUT TOGETHER.

ABOUT BETH

President, Purposeful Wealth Advisors
Wealth Manager, RJFS CFP®,CLU®

Beth's mission is to help individuals and organizations craft actionable plans for creating opportunities and clarity around their financial decisions that align fully to their life goals.

As a wealth manager with over 20 years of experience, Beth provides guidance for clients in both the relational and technical aspects of their wealth management. She is best known for a keen eye toward taking a comprehensive approach to complex financial situations including estate planning, multi-generational wealth transfers, and she has a solid track record in investment management, philanthropic strategies, tax planning, cash flow analysis, stock options, compensation benefits, and retirement planning.

Beth works closely with her clients' attorneys, CPAs, and bankers to provide them with a cohesive team.

After completing her bachelor's degree at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Beth spent several years at the Northern Trust company, managing the wealth for affluent families. She joined Keating & Associates in 2008 and now serves in a leadership role as the Executive Vice President for Keating & Associates at the same time as serving as President and Founder for Purposeful Wealth Advisors as a wealth manager for high-net-worth clients and institutions.

Beth is married and has 3 children. She enjoys practicing yoga and cooking for the family on Sunday evenings.
